

Measurement Options for Growers

To track an allocation, growers have been given three measurement options:

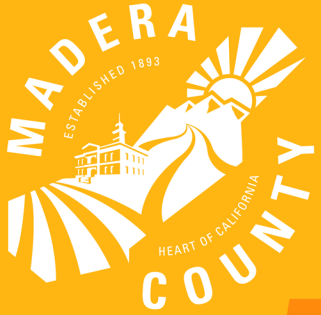

- Flow meters
- Irriwatch
- Land IQ

Each of the three measurement options requires data management and analysis, quality control processes, generation of grower reports, outreach, and review of grower reporting materials.

@MADERACOUNTY
maderacounty.com

Dauids Engineering Scope of Work

This contract will allow Davids Engineering to build on existing work and coordinate closely with County GSA staff to develop and implement the required processes, with an emphasis on training County GSA staff.

@MADERACOUNTY
maderacounty.com

Dauids Engineering Scope of Work

The project proposal consists of:

- Task 1. Coordinate with County and 3rd party data providers for allocation implementation
- Task 2. Develop procedures for quality controlling and processing flow meter, Irriwatch, and Land IQ
- Task 3. Create allocation reports for flowmeters, IrriWatch, and Land IQ-based water accounting
- Task 4. Perform quality control review of allocation reports

@MADERACOUNTY
maderacounty.com

Dauids Engineering Scope of Work Continued

The project proposal consists of:

- Task 5. Develop and implement procedures for distributing allocation reports
- Task 6. Coordinate with growers regarding allocation report materials and contents
- Task 7. Document allocation management and implementation procedures and train Madera County
- Task 8. Perform on-call tasks

@MADERACOUNTY
maderacounty.com

Contract Amount and Term Date

- Contract amount: $570,000
- Term date: December 31, 2024
- No new fiscal impact (included in GSA Admin Fee)

@MADERACOUNTY
maderacounty.com

